

PSQU

The BRITEX Stainless Squat Pan is designed to meet the growing demand for hygienic, vandal-resistant sanitary fixtures in facilities catering to a multicultural clientele. It can be installed flush with the floor to enable cleaning of the total floor area or on a raised plinth platform to squat.

[Please Note] Britex Stainless Steel Squat Pans are intended for sale within the Asia Pacific market and do not currently hold Australian Watermark or WELS certification. If the squat pans are to be purchased and installed within Australia, product approval should be sought from the applicable governing authorities before purchase.

Features and Benefits

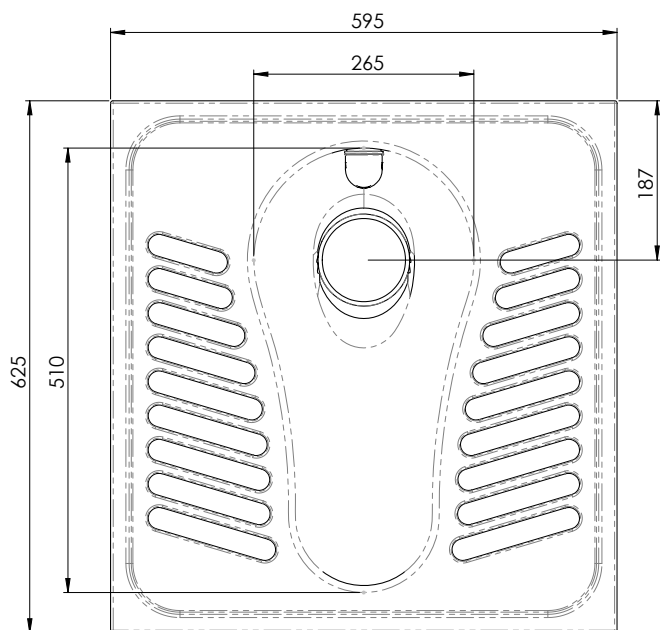

- One piece pressing
- Integral, pressed foot stands
